BELGRADE BREAK

4 days/ 3 nights

Welcome to the land of great cultural wealth, where nature is just as tame as it is wild, and where beautiful cities irrevocably entwine the East and the West for centuries. Come, explore Serbia, its cities, unique natural beauty, old monasteries, archaeological sites, the remains of the Roman Empire, castles, chateaux, spas, ethno villages and many other things. Indulge your senses with superb Serbian national cuisine. Feel the burst of energy at some of the most exhilarating music festivals in Europe, and experience a unique nightlife that usually lasts until the early morning hours. The Sava coming from the west, and the Danube arriving from the north, join their waters in Belgrade, to proceed eastwards. For centuries it was a frontier fortress, the apple of contend between the rivaling invaders, Romans, Goths, Huns, Byzantines, Crusaders, Hungarians, Turks and the others. Today, Belgrade is a modern, developed city, with good facilities and hospitable citizens. Belgrade will welcome you, with a warm hug and a cheerful smile!

Optional tours:

Tour Novi Sad, Petrovaradin fortress and Sremski Karlovci - Novi Sad, known as a heaven of tranquillity and tolerance multi ethnic and cultural, with natural elegance and old city charm.

One of the first impressions the city makes, is that it is a city of well-tended beauty. Its architecture and spirit have been shaped by many a nations. Easy-going and surrounded by fertile lowland, Fruška Mountain and the river Danube, this city is a pearl amongst the Serbian cities. It is also called the "Serbian Athens" It is home to south-east Europe's largest music festival, EXIT which has earned a global reputation for its diversity and cutting-edge music.

Petrovaradin Fortress – The Fortress located across the Danube overlooking Novi Sad because of its strategic role through the centuries has long been known as the "Gibraltar of the Danube". Today it is a town museum. Fruška Gora is often compared to Sveta Gora (Holy Mountain) for its impressive complex of Serbian medieval monasteries of great beauty and priceless spiritual value. Seventeen monasteries on Fruška Gora make a unique collection of densely distributed shrines built during a time span from 15th until 17th century as Serbian royal families' endowments.

Monasteries on Fruška Gora are guardians of Serbian religion, tradition and customs, but they are also unique monuments of Serbian artistic creativity from the Middle Ages. The town of Sremski Karlovci combines: history, religion, wine and beauty. It stood as the cultural, political and religious centre of the Serbian people in the Austro-Hungarian Empire for two full centuries.

This baroque town is a former seat of the Serbian Orthodox Church in the Habsburg Monarchy. The town is also well known for wine, one variety being absolutely unique in the World – the Bermet. Return to Belgrade. Overnight in the hotel.
